

Asheville, Chapter # 74 November, 2018

FROM THE PRESIDENT, LYNN FORBES

What a wonderful, fall inspired Ichiyo program by Patti Quinn Hill and her advanced students Sue Grier, Jennifer Jenkins and Judi Efland to get us in the mood for Thanksgiving and the upcoming holidays! Thank you for your inspiring Ichiyo designs! If you missed the October program, please check out the website at ikebanaasheville.org to view “Color and Form of Fall Arrangements from the Ichiyo School.

To our recording secretary, Frieda Probst, thank you so much for your detailed minutes each month for our membership. We appreciate your accurate record keeping for our membership and website.

Judi Efland will be our new Asheville Ikebana International Facebook Administrator and Education Chair. Please send Judi your photos of our chapter's events to share on our page.

Fall seems to be passing quickly and winter is nipping on our heels as the earth provides us with a time to reflect and plan for the upcoming year. We have many wonderful programs coming in 2019 with two slots remaining for our teachers to fill. Please check out our attachment below and sign up to be a part of 2019 lineup ASAP.

If you were not present at the October meeting be sure to let Sue Grier know if you will be attending our Annual Holiday Potluck Luncheon on December 4, 2018 at the lovely home of Laura Felt to share in “Friendship through flowers” and get in the holiday spirit. We look forward to seeing each of YOU there to celebrate the season.

We have a New Year's surprise for you planned soon but we need each of you to send your month and day of birth to Roberta ASAP at simplystitching@gmail.com so we can complete our planned surprise and add to our membership records!

See attachments below for Holiday Luncheon sign up info, Treasurer's Report, and I I Board Minutes for you to pursue and review.

FROM THE VICE PRESIDENT AND PROGRAM CHAIR, SUE GRIER

Finishing up 2018...
